LIBRARY PRACTICE FOR MOUNTAIN VIEW STUDENTS

The Library Catalog

1. Go to the Mountain View Library Homepage. Choose “Search The Library Catalog.” Search for behavior change.
   How many e-books are in your results? ___________________________

2. Conduct a search for the author “Jane B. Burka”.
   Give the title of one of her books that is available as an e-book.
   __________________________________________________________

3. Go to Advanced Search. Do a subject search for “Choice Behavior”.
   Refine the search to e-books format.
   What is the title of the first result?
   ________________________________

Online Databases

1. Click on the ONLINE DATABASES link. Go to the SUBJECT SEARCH (upper left corner). Scroll down and highlight CAREERS.
   How many databases are available for this subject? _______________

2. Go to Opposing Viewpoints database. From the top menu click “Browse Issues”.
   Locate and click the topic “Addiction”.
   Under “Featured Viewpoints” list the title of an article.
   __________________________________________________________

3. Go to Academic Search Complete database. Conduct an advanced search for “behavior modification” and “food habits”. In the dropdown menu next to your search boxes, select “SU Subject Terms”. Limit your results to full text and scholarly (peer-reviewed) journals.
   Find an interesting article.
   What is the title of the article?
   ________________________________
   What is the title of the source?
   ________________________________

   Use “Cite” tool to create the MLA citation, select, copy, and paste it here:
   __________________________________________________________